

Qualifications required for inclusion in Restoration and Conservation Architects Panel

* * *

Terms and conditions for applying for the “panel of Conservation Architects” having good experience in Master Planning, restoration plans for historic temple complexes and heritage complexes and should have knowledge, experience, expertise and competence of execution in the following works:

- In restoration of stucco work, murals and preservation of stone architectural members and sculptures and experts/ skilled craftsmen to be engaged.
- Experience in Master planning and design, interpretation centres, preparing DPRs.
- Preparation of adaptive reuse plan, upgradation of services for new use and Implementation and in providing consultancy for Structural conservation, estimates, visitor amenities, interpretation plan, design and development of an interpretation centre, visitors amenities ,parking & entrance plaza, access pathways & landscape.
- To submit a list of the projects executed and completed.
